

This is by far the best service offered on the radio. When you are in a hurry you hit the channel and you know exactly what is going on weather and traffic wise. In the past I have switched to am news radio, and by the time they tell you about traffic, you are already stuck in it.